SOCIETE GENERALE DEVELOPS ITS PRIVATE BANKING OFFERING IN MOROCCO

Societe Generale Maroc, the subsidiary of Societe Generale group in Morocco, is launching a private banking offering for top-tier wealth management clients in the country, supported by the expertise of Societe Generale Private Banking.

Societe Generale Maroc, the leading private financial group in the country with an international shareholder of reference, provides wealth management clients with access to high added-value services and advice for the management, protection and transmission of their wealth. These clients will be served by dedicated staff located in 8 private banking agencies throughout the country.

The teams at the Group's private bank will bring their whole range of expertise to the Societe Generale Maroc teams, in particular their recognised experience in structured products and tools for providing top-tier wealth management clients with a full and detailed diagnosis of their wealth.

Societe Generale thus aims to capitalise on its businesses to provide its Morocco-resident clients with a full range of tailor-made banking services, investment and financial advisory and wealth management know-how.
